

ALEXANDER NOT FORGOTTEN.

The Old Dominion Jockey Club
Not in the Turf Congress.

Still, Rulings at the Track Will Be Respected, It Is Determined.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., April 10.—The American Turf Congress was in session more than five hours last night. Much important business was disposed of, but the jockeys struck a snag in the report of the committee appointed to formulate racing rules for 1905. The report was discussed until after 1 o'clock without action. Its consideration will be resumed to-night.

In the absence of President Maffitt, ex-president S. H. Montgomery, of Memphis, presided.

The large delegation of St. Louis men, whose reinstatement of the officers, jockeys, trainers, jockeys and others indicted in Winter racing was rejected last night, crowded the lobby, but finally passed. Among the jockeys affected by this decision are Joe Martin, Patsy Dermott, Ed McGavin and Charles Hall.

The fight between Lewis Long and George Bennett over the right to the services of Jockey Club was decided by the Congress to be beyond its jurisdiction and a matter for the courts. The application of the Old Dominion Jockey Club for the admission of Alexander Island track to membership in the Congress was taken up. The point was raised that owing to the fact that the Alexander Island track was not formally admitted, and this view was sustained by the Congress. The jockey club was instructed, however, to notify the club that so long as the rules of the Congress were not violated, the jockeys of the Old Dominion Club would be respected.

The Pacific Coast Jockey Club, of San Francisco, of which Claus Spreckels is president, was admitted.

MADDERN'S STRING ARRIVES.

Nine Cracks at Lexington Today from Lexington.

SHEPHEARD RAY, April 10.—J. E. Madden's string of nine horses arrived here from Lexington, Ky., at 1 P. M. to-day. The stable is in prime condition, and is in charge of the trainer, James W. Reeds. On being asked if he had any Harry Reeds or Apollonians in the lot he hinted that there were some in the lot, but he would not hold them out with that pair.

Mr. Madden is expected here on Saturday.

FOOTBALL FOR HARVARD.

Overseers Leave the Fate of Game with the Athletic Committee.

BOSTON, Mass., April 10.—At the meeting of the Board of Overseers of Harvard College to-day the football question was discussed.

The members of the board in the judgment of the Board of Overseers, the decision of the question is within the powers of the Athletic Committee, under the standing rule of the President, Feltner and the Board of Overseers, and it is shown that the existing serious evils and abuses of the game cannot be corrected.

The vote of the Overseers is a victory for their delegate football. The Athletic Committee will now be given an opportunity to revise the rules and the game will be given another trial.

Yacht Algonquin in Port.

The Algonquin yacht, Capt. Algonquin, arrived this afternoon from Kingston, Jamaica, after an extended cruise in the West Indies. Algonquin flies the pennant of the New York Yacht Club, and was captained by James W. Rogers, who left the yacht at Kingston and returned home by steamer.

"Blat" Masterman Said to Be Alive.

A telegram to Dodge City, Kan., from Guthrie, Okla., states that "Blat" Masterman, the well-known Denver sporting man, died there of consumption. Later advice to the effect that his brother, Jim Masterman, is dead and that "Blat" is still alive.

Henley Crew Not Made Up.

ITHACA, N. Y., April 10.—No selections have yet been made for the Cornell Varsity crew who are to row in the Henley Regatta on July 8 next.

OUR $15 HOBBY.

It's a good one. We will ride it as long as the splendid line of $15.00 suits and overcoats now in our store remains complete enough to give everybody a chance at one.

People in the vicinity of our store should bear in mind our Furnishings. Always right, no fancy prices.

"DR." KAHN IN THE TOLLS.

Arrested for Practising Medicine Under a False Name.

Policeman English this morning arrested Dr. R. L. Johnston, known also as Dr. L. E. Kahn, and Dr. J. Jordan, at his home, 2 West Nineteenth street, on a warrant sworn out by Robert Taylor, attorney for the County Medical Society.

Charles H. Brown, a stonecutter, of 44 Livingston street, swears he called on Dr. Kahn on Jan. 28, and asked for Dr. Jordan. Dr. Kahn said that was his name, made an examination of Brown and declared he was suffering from a disease. He said he could cure him for $25. He took $25 as a retainer fee and gave three bottles of medicine and one box of pills. Brown was examined later by a reputable physician, who declared he had no disease.

Mr. Taylor says Kahn had his name changed to "Dr. Johnston" two years ago. He was R. L. Johnston, but acquired the legal right to the name. He hired the residence 21 West Nineteenth street. Dr. Kahn died fourteen years ago, and Dr. Jordan died six years ago.

Decoy letters were written from Canaan to both Dr. Kahn and Dr. Jordan. It is said answers were received, signed by both Kahn and Jordan in the same handwriting.

It is claimed by the Medical Society that Kahn's Museum of Anatomy on the Bowery is maintained to secure customers for the doctor, and many people have been treated for diseases.

Justice McMahon, in the Tombs Police Court this afternoon, held Kahn in $1,000 for examination on April 17, at 2 o'clock.

ED STOKES WILL APPEAL.

James D. and Daniel J. Leary were accepted as bondsmen for Edward B. Stokes, on his appeal from a judgment obtained by W. E. D. Stokes, in the Superior Court, on Nov. 22, 1903, for $2,000.

The judgment has been affirmed by the General Term of the Superior Court, and the case is set for trial on April 17, at 2 o'clock.

The original suit was brought to recover money loaned to E. B. Stokes by W. E. D. Stokes when they were interested in the same business. The Learys justified before Judge Gilder for about $20,000 each.

Daniel Leary gave his residence as the Hoffman House, and said he was worth $20,000 above all liabilities. The court accepted his statement, and a ship builder and contractor.

ALLISON RETURNS THANKS.

New Judge Calls on Mr. Platt—Commissioner Brookfield, Ton.

Thomas Allison, the newly-appointed Judge of the Court of General Sessions, called on Thomas C. Platt this morning and thanked him for his endorsement.

Commissioner of Public Works Brookfield also dropped in to discuss railroad matters, and police matters.

A Sailor for Giralda.

NICE, April 10.—The steam yacht race was not a very interesting affair. There was only one race, and it was won by the yacht "Giralda" in about 1,000 tons. She only made one round of the course and took the Challenge Cup, valued at $2,500, offered by James Gordon Bennett.

Vigilant Will Sail To-morrow.

SOUTHAMPTON, April 10.—The American sloop yacht Vigilant, belonging to Messrs. Gould, will sail for New York to-morrow.

WITH THE WHEELMEN.

"Zimmie" won't go to France to race against Hubben, principally because he has no money on the Hubben side of the agreement.

The Freehold examiner has set the price of his introduction to the track as far as the Westchester Memorial Day meet is concerned. He probably will not get it. "Zimmie" will sail for Australia in August.

Here's what Chairman Gilders has to say about Clavon A. and B. First of a series of men who sell a prize, no matter when, who is a professional. Second, a man who is a professional.
